

Andrew Scarff

Director
m3p&e

Andrew has over 17 years experience and joined the m3p&e advisory team in 2009. He has an extensive valuation background completing many assignments across a vast number of industries throughout the world.

Over recent years he has project managed many valuations including the BHP acquisition of Western Mining which involved over 11 billion dollars of assets.

Andrew has completed many valuations for financial reporting, tax consolidation and insurance purposes. His expertise is across many valuation needs including:

- Valuations for financial reporting purposes;
- Valuations for mergers and acquisitions;
- Insurance and loss assessing;
- Asset divestment and receivership;
- Valuations for due diligence & purchase price allocation;
- Asset register reconciliations and implementation; and
- Valuations for tax (tax consolidation)

Andrew's particular expertise is in the mining and manufacturing industries. He works closely with these mining companies and their advisors in relation to strategies that maximise value, reduce tax and mitigate risk. He is a member of the Melbourne Mining Club and has presented plant and equipment valuation topics to universities and accounting firms.
