

Robert Van Raay

Managing Director
m3p&e

Robert has over 29 years of plant & equipment valuation experience and has performed valuations for asset owners and financiers in all States of Australia and overseas. Robert is well known to the structured finance banks around the world as one of the leaders in the valuation profession.

Robert has provided asset valuation and consulting services for many different purposes, including insurance purposes, mergers & acquisitions, financial reporting, taxation requirements, financial security, acquisition and disposal, privatisation and asset management.

He has extensive experience over a broad spectrum of industries including manufacturing, ships and ship building, public utilities, engineering, printing & publishing, petro-chemicals, textiles, pulp & paper making, food processing & packaging, mining, government sector assets and automotive.

Robert also has extensive experience in the valuation of transportation and fleet assets. As a former Principal of Ernst & Young's Valuation Services Team, Robert was Ernst & Young's transportation asset sector specialist and global leader for valuations in Ernst & Young's International Shipping Group.

He is a former Divisional Councillor of the Australia Property Institute where he also served on a number of boards and committees. Currently Robert is a member of the RICS Vic/Tas Committee and an independent member of the Investment Committee of the Investec Global Aircraft Fund.

Robert has also presented at various Australian and International valuation, industry and finance conferences and has published valuation articles throughout his valuation career.
